

WEEK AT A GLANCE

YOUR GUIDE TO WHAT'S HAPPENING AT FIRST UNIVERSITY SDA

PASTOR ROGER HERNANDEZ

HOPE WINS!

WE ALL HAVE PROBLEMS: HOPE SERIES DAY 8

This powerful and timely message challenges us to examine where our faith truly shows up—beyond routine worship and into everyday life. With clarity, warmth, and conviction, it calls believers to deeper trust, renewed perspective, and bold, faith-filled action. Whether you're navigating uncertainty or simply hungry for more, this word offers both encouragement and direction. Lean in and discover how this message could reshape your thinking, strengthen your walk, and ignite what God is doing next in your life.

The deadline is quickly approaching! The Southern Union is encouraging all married couples to complete the conference-wide survey focused on strengthening marriages and enhancing programs that support couples. Your voice matters—this is an opportunity to help shape resources that bless and uplift families across our conference.

Please take a few moments to complete the survey by April 12, 2026. Don't miss your chance to be heard!

Attention Choir Members:

Choir rehearsals will be held after church every 2nd and 4th Sabbath. Please plan to remain after service on those Sabbaths as we prepare and continue strengthening our ministry through music.

Your presence and participation truly make a difference—thank you for your continued commitment!

It's that time again! Black Maternal Health Week 2026 is here—April 11–17—featuring a series of impactful events dedicated to uplifting and supporting the health of Black birthing individuals.

All events are free, and RSVPs are encouraged. Secure Your Spot Here by registering through the Florida Black Maternal Health Initiative's
